Located in midtown St. Pete since 1949, LGRC www.louisegraham.org provides both daily living skills and a variety of pre-vocational training to over 70 developmentally disabled adults. Secure Shred is one of LGRC programs that provides certified document destruction and recycling services utilized by such organizations as the IRS, Pinellas County Sheriff and a variety of prominent financial service corporations. Secure Shred uniquely provides paid employment & skills training to the developmentally disabled to enable them to join the private workforce.

LGRC MISSION: To provide opportunities for adults with developmental disabilities to maximize their independence through the provision of quality life skills training, paid employment and participation in the community at large.
